RELIGION -Our focus is Jesus gives us the Eucharist. Reminder 1st Communion is scheduled for April 29th.

MATH - Place value to 1,000, working on reading, writing, and comparing numbers. Terms to know: expanded form, standard form, and number word.

READING - We are in our new Super Kids book! Our book talk will be, Breakout at the Bug Lab, which a favorite of most students.

SCIENCE- Explore states of matter: solid, liquid, gas. I think we could freeze some bubbles!

HANDWRITING - We completed all of the lowercase cursive letters. We will learn C,A,O, and Q this week. I have written their names in cursive for them to start using. Please help check that they are forming letters correctly.

SPELLING -Unit 5, Week 1 words ending in -ful. Please note that the words tend to get longer the second half of the year and may require more practice.

Virtue for January is fortitude- it is a steadiness of will in doing good in spite of difficulties faced in the performance of one's duty.

Saint: Saint Bernadette- saw visions of Mary at Lourdes and is the patron saint of sick persons and also of the family and poverty.

I apologize for the salty clothing from our ice cream snack attack!

I hope you all had a very blessed Christmas. Thank you for the many gifts! I am blessed to have such wonderful students.
